Sat evening

Dear Anne

I take time by the fore lock for as you send a man & horse for a letter at 4 o'clock every afternoon - one must be in the shall report in season — Dixon has had a sick day but I hope she is better this evening about 7 Hildreth came - & then Johnson — we had a tolerably sociable time - Hildreth brought one — bone & Johnson several — he said we had been wondering sometime what the Bronson was detaining for — The Minister is out - he is appointed by government - Superintendent of Chelsea hospital — a good berth with a good salary & fine accommodations — plenty of leisure & to be done — Johnson brot the manuscript containing the report of a delegate from the Bath anti Society - of the doings at Philadelphia — in the form of a Journal kept from first to last — it is fine - but she saw not with a poetical or philosophical eye - & to the world at large it is useless - unintelligible it is sent to Knatchbull proposing to him to print it in a pamphlet - & the Son - with Rachel $10.00 worth I have only one reason for wishing it printed & that is a selfish one - it is coolly & discribing the organization of the convention - Theodore & Miss Ball - a lady from Boston slightly colored" —

The Newyork people are in great trouble about ~~Colonel~~ James Williams — & Binns has published a whole page in the Compiler, of Statement &c — The Southern people I believe have demonstrated that there are no such persons, nor ever were, as the slaves mentioned in the Narrative — Binns confesses that some things look rather dark — a man some where in the State of New York I believe has sent on orders to Colonel — for books — among the rest Rights & Wrongs — Nos — 1 — & 2, in any form or binding which the State insure — No 3 — not coming —

Johnson says the tide is in his favor & he results before long — he feels the Quaker sensibly — it is a fact that individuals how ever exalted is not known, have gone from South Carolina to the British West Indies — Nothing is known about the Gov of Georgia — his name is Gilmer I believe — & it appears that he himself advertises for the letter which Slade has never received, it being lost — the letter in the Lib which attracted our attention was sent to the Slade through J. Q. Adams & was dispatched in Maryland

Eldredth thather much of the Bailey's affairs - we agreed to go there together, next Sat-he would come here Friday evening & then we would plan how to go —

He is not going to nominate Henry Shaw for congress — neither - James G. Austen not worth - standing - the prediction of the advocate - Payne has left Edward Blake $30,000. & the rest of his fortune which is rated from 100 - to 150,000. To his nieces - the Christes Cannes - they were with him at Paris — Henry cries some at this — we don't know yet that at the Club house alley any - in case of Blakes demise before the wife was. prove - Johnathen Chadwick was to bathe it — Chauncy house is it-self again all well - Good night —
